CONTENTS OF VOLUME 17

TABLE OF CONTENTS

BRITISH JOURNAL OF MUSIC EDUCATION

Vol. 17 2000
(Book reviews in italic letters)

NUMBER 1, MARCH 2000

The Contributors 1

Editorial 3

John Paynter: Making progress with composing 5

Stephanie Pitts: Reasons to teach music: establishing a place in the contemporary curriculum 33

Victor Flusser: An ethical approach to music education 43

Nita Temmerman: An investigation of the music activity preferences of pre-school children 51

Janet Mills HMI: Secondary singing inspected 61

Harald Jørgensen: Student learning in higher instrumental education: who is responsible 67

David Bray: An examination of GCSE music uptake rates 79

Book Reviews 91

Instructions for Authors 101

NUMBER 2, JULY 2000

The Contributors 105

Editorial 107

George Odam: Teaching composing in secondary schools: the creative dream 109

Janet Mills and Andy Murray: Music technology inspected: good teaching in Key Stage 3 129

Mary Kellett: Raising musical esteem in the primary classroom: an exploratory study of young children's listening skills 157

Sarah Hennessy: Overcoming the red-feeling: the development of confidence to teach music in primary school amongst student teachers 183

Oliver Julien: Introducing students to music technology: the case for reel-to-reel analog tape machines 197

Book Reviews 209

Instructions for Authors 219

NUMBER 3, NOVEMBER 2000

The Contributors 223

Editorial 225

Pamela Burnard: Examining experiential differences between improvisation and the composition in children's music-making 227

Liz Mellor: Listening, language and assessment: the pupils' perspective 247

Angela Knapp: Music and the literacy hour at Key Stage 2: an investigation into curricular pressure 265

Sherry Johnson: Authenticity: who needs it? 275

Marguerite Barker Reinecke: Teaching music literacy in the townships: building partnerships and a culture of accountability 287

Nicholas Bannan: Instinctive singing: lifelong development of 'the child within' 295

Book Reviews 303

Instructions for Authors 317

Index 321